WELL RISEN: Nadiya Hussain is just one step away from the Great British Bake Off title

Nadiya joins upper crust in Bake Off final

LUTON born and raised Nadiya Hussain has skirted her way around soggy bottoms and burnt offerings, stared into the steely blue eyes of Paul Hollywood, and now finds herself in the final three of TV's Great British Bake Off.

The former Challney High School for Girls and Luton Sixth Form pupil has consistently impressed judges Hollywood and Mary Berry with her skills.

This week the bakers conjured up chocolate creations and Nadiya's was deemed good enough to see her through to the final. Her intricate chocolate blue peacock earned her the star baker award, and it now all comes down to who can stand the heat of the kitchen next week.

Paul Croston, her AS English Language teacher from back in 2001, said of her: "I'm one of the few who hasn't seen Bake Off but when I saw her photo I recognised her instantly. I remember her as incredibly polite, friendly and exactly the right person to entrust to creating something you are going to eat."

She will contest Wednesday's final against Tamal Ray and Ian Cumming, after Flora Shedden's hopes crumbled this week.

Council plays favourites with schools

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

PROPOSALS for a mixed free school have been given council backing, just weeks after the authority opposed plans for a similar all girls' facility.

St Anne's High School for Girls, a free school which gained approval from the Department for Education (DfE) and is due to open in Luton in 2017 subject to planning permission, has been snubbed by council officers.

But they have thrown full backing behind proposals to create the 'Chiltern Academy'.

The proposed secondary school would be run by the Chiltern Learning Trust (CLT), which currently runs Denbigh High, Challney High School for Boys and a number of other schools across the town, and would teach those aged between 11 and 16.

It is understood Luton Borough Council (LBC) approached CLT and asked if it would consider applying to open a mixed free school in the town and on Friday the trust announced its plan to apply to the DfE for the go-ahead.

Chris Wright, a spokesman for CLT, said: "It's very early days and we're currently working on the application and are excited about the future. The projection for Luton is that by 2018 there will be a shortage of places equivalent to 19 forms in secondary schools alone.

"This means that pupils currently in primary school will not have a school place, unless they are created. I don't feel that there will be an issue on St Anne's High School for Girls, both schools will help reach a much needed quota of places."

LBC reinforced this view, with a spokeswoman saying: "We do not believe that the Chiltern Learning Trust proposal would have any impact on St Anne's."

On why this proposal was given council support and not St Anne's, the spokeswoman added: "We are not opposed to single sex schools, but an additional girls' school will exacerbate the current mismatch in capacity between single gender schools.

"There are currently 1,228 more boys than girls in the Luton school system, and there are already 225 more girls only school places in Luton, in comparison to boys only school places.

"Luton needs a 1,200 place mixed sex secondary and the free school process is the most cost effective way of achieving our goal of meeting the demand for future school places."

Last month the National Union of Teachers called for the Government to fund the expansion of existing primary and secondary schools instead of opening another free school in Luton.

A spokeswoman for LBC said: "We are doing everything we can to meet the projected shortage of school places in Luton and previously we have used a mixture of expansion and new buildings to address this issue.

"However, we are now at a stage where there is very limited potential to expand on existing school sites due to lack of space, therefore expansion is no longer a solution to the growing demand for school places in the town."

Last man jailed for part in courthouse stabbing

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A GANG member has received an 11-year jail sentence for his part in a stabbing which took place in Luton town centre last year.

Sejon King, 19, of Williton Road, Luton was the eleventh and final man to be sentenced in connection with the violent disorder which happened on December 2.

A fight broke out in the town centre, which resulted in an 18-year-old man being stabbed.

The victim suffered serious, but not life threatening, injuries.

The violence was sparked when members of the Lewsey Trap gang ambushed the Purley Crew outside Luton Magistrates' Court.

Most of the boys had armed themselves with knives in preparation for the attack.

Following the disorder and stabbing, a group of men broke into a house in Williton Road, Luton, armed with knives, in a bid for revenge.

Detective Inspector Jackie Dadd of Bedfordshire Police said:

BANGED UP: Sejon King was part of a gang who stabbed a man in Luton

"We're delighted that the final offender involved in this incident has been brought to justice.

"Bedfordshire Police are committed to tackling violent offences and gang-related disorder.

"I'd like to thank all of our officers involved in the case, from those in response and community who were first on the scene, to the detectives who investigated the incidents, for their hard work and help in fighting crime and protecting the public."

King was sentenced to 11 years for conspiring to cause GBH and GBH with intent. He will also serve two years concurrently for violent disorder and three years concurrently for possession of a knife.

On Wednesday four of the men jailed previously received criminal behaviour orders which forbid them from communicating with those involved for a number of years as well as banning them from carrying an offensive weapon. If they breach the orders, they will receive a further custodial sentence.

The other 10 men were jailed early last month for their involvement in the incident for a total of 37 years. The offences included GBH, conspiracy to commit GBH, violent disorder and affray.

Sentences ranged from 11 years to 10 months.

Paedo's guilty grooming plea after web sting

MASKED paedophile hunters caught a man, who has since been jailed, who thought he was meeting a 14-year-old for sex.

Neil Ivall and two women, who were wearing Guy Fawkes' masks, confronted Leslie Turner, 54, who is bald and has a moustache, in the 'sting' at Luton railway station.

Turner believed he was going to meet a teenage girl called Lisa Fisher after grooming her for sex over Facebook.

But Luton Crown Court heard on Wednesday that Lisa Fisher did not exist and Turner had been set up.

Prosecutor Neil King said the girl's profile had been created by people purporting to be from the Anonymous network and in court Turner, of Cromwell Hill, Luton, pleaded guilty to attempting to meet a child following sexual grooming.

Ross Talbott, defending, said Turner, who worked in a series of casual jobs, had never been in trouble before.

He had started drinking after the death of his fiancée on the day of their wedding five years ago. At one stage he was drinking three one litre bottles of whisky at day, but he has now stopped drinking spirits.

"He is a lonely individual who was having online relationships," he said.

Judge David Farrell QC jailed him for 14 months. He must register as a sex offender for 10 years and abide by a sexual harm prevention order for 10 years. The order includes a ban on him having contact with children in person or over the internet.

The judge told him: "You knew right from the start this was someone who was only 14 years of age. Fortunately no actual victim existed, but it was your intention to meet her following sexual grooming. Such behaviour is totally unacceptable. Children have to be protected."

TAKE CARE COOKING IN KITCHEN

THE county's fire service has issued a new warning about kitchen safety after a series of incidents occurred last weekend.

At 5.51pm last Sunday, Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue Service was called to two kitchen fires that had broken out, one in Laxton Close, Luton, and another in Delamere Gardens, Leighton Buzzard. Both fires were caused by cooking.

As a result it has offered residents safety advice, including to make sure working smoke alarms are fitted, don't let cooking oil get too hot, don't throw water over an oil pan fire - suffocate it instead with something like a tea towel - and always check the cooker is completely off before walking away.

For more advice, visit: luton-dunstable.co.uk

PAIR CAGED FOR CASH ROBBERY

A COUPLE who robbed a vulnerable man, forcing him to withdraw money from a cash point machine in Upper George Street in Luton have both been jailed for 22 months.

Nadine Symonds, 33, and Samuel Boyd, 31, of Downs Road, Luton, robbed a man on January 19 this year of £30 in cash.

Boyd appeared for sentence at Luton Crown Court on Monday having earlier admitted the offence of robbery. Symonds was sentenced having been found guilty of the offence at the end of a trial earlier this year.

Postcode lottery for emergency response

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

PEOPLE living in towns and villages on the edges of the county have a greater chance of having their emergency calls misdirected due to confusion over who has responsibility for cross-border postcodes.

In several spots, residents have postcodes related to sorting offices in neighbouring counties. For example the SG5 code covers Astwick and Stotford, but also covers Hitchin in Hertfordshire. Similarly NN29 covers Podington but also Bozeat in Northamptonshire.

Bedfordshire Police says it does not solely rely on postcode systems, instead using 'sophisticated computer-based ordinance survey mapping systems'. But East of England Ambulance Service (EEAST) has said that all of its calls are managed by BT and it decides based on location where to divert the call to, but there are occasions when a person who is on the border of two counties may be put through to the incorrect control room.

Following an incident last week in which a man from Sandy was left at the roadside for almost two hours, due to confusion over which police force should attend, a local MP and health minister has said enough is enough.

Alistair Burt, MP for North East Bedfordshire and minister for community and social care, said: "I think it's unacceptable for the public to be told by any emergency service that an incident is 'not on our patch' - I think we are tired of hearing that phrase and we ought to be able to devise a better way to deal with this recurrent issue. I will be raising it with appropriate forces."

A spokesman for EEAST said: "We do operate on the postcode location system for an agreed boundary between services, but the service receiving the call would hold the responsibility of pinpointing the location and be the responsible service in the first instance."

A spokesman for Bedfordshire Police added: "If a call arrives in the force control room but relates to another county it will be immediately passed to the appropriate force. If we have free resources nearby, for example because it is just the other side of the county boundary, we will offer to assist the lead force."

A spokesman for Royal Mail said postcodes would not normally be changed unless there is 'a pressing operational reason to do so' and added that other organisations such as the emergency services should not rely on the postal town to provide a geographic location as it is 'not appropriate in all circumstances'.

A DISABLED woman has been left housebound after her request for a plug socket to charge her mobility scooter was rejected by a council.

Tarisa Howe, 40, who lives in a Central Bedfordshire Council property for elderly and disabled people in Kingsway, Dunstable, received the news that her plea had fallen on deaf ears this week.

Miss Howe said: "They're willing to take away a disabled person's independence."

"There's no good reason not to do this."

"I've looked at other housing options to see if they might be better equipped but there's none out there, unless you're over 55."

Miss Howe previously charged her scooter by running an extension cable from her flat to outside, but that was deemed a safety risk by a surveyor.

She's now worried this could also mean having to give up her dog.

Miss Howe suffers from a number of disabilities, which include systematic lupus, arthritis, scoliosis, fibromyalgia and asthma and is cared for by a close friend.

She said: "I'm due to undergo surgery on both knees in the coming months and have bought this so I can still get about, but with no easy way to charge it that option has been taken away."

"It could mean I have to give my dog away as I can't afford to keep paying for people to walk her for me."

Luton on Sunday contacted Central Bedfordshire Council for a response but the authority did not respond in time for our deadline.

College claims all issues have been addressed

BARNFIELD College has said it has fully addressed all areas of concern that were identified following a visit from the Further Education Commissioner earlier this year.

In July, the FE Commissioner's Adviser conducted a review of progress and as a result Nick Boles, minister for skills, recently wrote to the college stating that he has been encouraged by the actions taken to implement the necessary quality and financial improvements.

Tim Eyton-Jones principal and CEO at Barnfield College, said: "This is excellent news for us, the wider community, local businesses we serve and, most importantly, the students. This is a major milestone in our recent history."

Mr. Bond explains "I wanted 'A' rated products at realistic prices from a local well established company that can make their own windows and doors. Kingsbourne ticked all the right boxes. Now after a brilliant, clean and tidy installation from Matt and Colin, I will certainly recommend Kingsbourne Windows to my family and friends".

Major changes to roads on the way

BY STEPHEN PENN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

HIGHWAYS England has announced how it will deliver major road improvement projects across the eastern region worth more than £2 billion between now and 2021.

According to the company's divisional director, roads and communities will be given an economic boost from the upcoming work.

Among the developments are the creation of a new 13 mile stretch of dual carriageway on the A428, improving safety and supporting significant levels of planned economic growth in the area.

These schemes, which will include work across the region to the A1(M), A12, A14 and M11, come as the second phase of development - the first of which included the M1-A5 link road which is currently underway and is expected to be completed by spring 2017.

This dual-lane carriageway will link up the two major routes in the hopes of bringing more people to the area and giving it an economic boost.

Hari Kulathumani said: "The work underway on the M1-A5 is expected to bring huge economic benefits to the area, with thousands of employment opportunities and 400 jobs in Houghton Regis alone.

"This will not just be a benefit for road users, but also the surrounding communities."

The M1 and A5 will also receive some of a separate £2.4m pot for road surface repairs, resurfacing, replacing and installing new signs, replacing road markings, upgrading lighting cables and installing new LED lights to improve safety.

Arrest made in 2003 murder case

A SECOND man has been arrested in connection with a police investigation into the disappearance of a woman from Luton 12 years ago.

On Wednesday a 66-year-old man from Luton was arrested on suspicion of assisting an offender and preventing a lawful burial.

He was released on police bail and is due to return later this month.

A 71-year-old man from Port Glasgow, Scotland, was arrested last week on suspicion of assisting an offender and preventing a lawful burial. He is also due to return on bail later this month.

Police launched an investigation in January last year as they believed Natalia Doherty was murdered in 2003. The last confirmed sighting of Natalia was on April 15 that year in Eastbourne but it is known she was brought to stay with her ex-husband Gerald Doherty in Luton at that time.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

£500k fraudster is jailed for five years

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

TRICKSTER Maria Nistor targeted a succession of sugar daddies and made nearly £500,000 in two-and-a-half years.

Nistor, from Romania, used her charms to beguile her victims and got them to hand over huge sums of cash after being taken in by her stings.

Between 2011 and 2013 Nistor, who lived with her daughter and Romanian partner in Luton, made a staggering £488,000 from five victims who were taken in by her tall tales and get-rich-quick schemes.

The court was told, some of the men – who are all in their 50s and 60s and divorced or single – worked in the financial industries.

Nistor, of Barton Road, Luton, pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court to five counts of fraud by false representation and was jailed for five years.

Prosecutor Michael Attenborough told how police in Luton began looking into Nistor's activities after discovering she had paid £70,000 into her bank account which appeared to come from two of the men.

SCAMMER: Maria Nistor conned men out of nearly £500,000

As the investigation continued it was discovered more men had given Nistor money. They were traced and were spoken to by detectives and revealed they had met Nistor through online dating agencies.

Her victims were from across the south of England, Scotland and one man lived abroad.

Mr Attenborough said the agencies included Sugadaddies.com and Match.com. The prosecutor said her scams involved telling her victims her father had died back in Romania and his home was being repossessed.

She told them if they were prepared to lend her money, she could buy it for a bargain price and then sell it at a profit.

They would not only get their money back, she told them, but there would be a bonus.

Anthony Bell, defending, said Nistor was of previous good character, apart from one road traffic matter, and was now anxious for her 13-year-old daughter who would be looked after by her partner while she was in prison.

He said she was now 'remorseful' for what she'd done and wanted to pay back money to her victims.

Judge Stuart Bridge jailed Nistor for five years and she now faces a confiscation hearing at a later date.

Judge Bridge told Nistor her victims had been 'intelligent, educated men' who had been taken in by her and found themselves exploited.

Centre not too bad

I VISITED the new Travel Centre today to book National Express tickets. No problems there. The young lady was more than helpful. I don't know why people are complaining.

Yes, there is a large coffee shop but people were sitting outside enjoying the sunshine.

It has really improved the look of the town and gives a positive impression for people arriving.

There is a need for a coffee shop there for people who have to wait for connections to other destinations. Perhaps arrangements could be made to extend the service to a Tourist Information Office as well?

A 'TRAVEL Centre'?! Don't make me laugh! You have to give credit to the council for the sheer gall of it.

Matter of opinion

I NOTICED an inconsistency on the Letters page last week. The heading for Jim Thakoordin's letter - Corbyn 'good news' for all - had inverted commas, indicating that it is not a fact but a matter of opinion whether Corbyn is good news for all.

However, there were no inverted commas round the heading for Ron Turvey's letter, which was headed Corbyn needs reality check. This is every bit as much a matter of opinion.

Please may we have a bit more balance in future; either inverted commas for all matters of opinion, or leave them off altogether.

And might I also suggest that Messrs Turvey and Tucker be given their own columns in the local press, thus allowing more people to air their views on the letters page.

Wake up, France

VCITORIA Dautovic's graphic description of the horrific conditions being endured by migrants camped out in Calais (LoS, 27.9.15) will have caused both sympathy and anger. Sympathy for those who, having lost their homes.

Anger, too, because this relatively tiny group - some 3,000 helpless men, women and children in a prosperous country of over 64 million inhabitants - have but 50 toilets and six taps between them. How long does it take to wake a Frenchman up?

Many generous people on this side of the Channel will send whatever they can afford or spare to ease the plight of these wretched victims of bureaucratic indifference. And many will beg our own government to send the Royal Navy to carry out a second evacuation as it did at Dunkirk 75 years ago.

That, however, is unnecessary; and two simple comparisons (from Wikipedia's List of Sovereign States), show why. The land area of the UK is 93,788 square miles. That of France is 210,026 square miles.

And while (on 1-10-14), France had some 306 people to the square mile, the UK (at 1-7-13), had an estimated 679. Those who still remember their history may recall that Calais was once a territorial possession of England, known as 'the brightest jewel in the English crown'. Until, in 1558, it was captured by France. So it is plainly a French responsibility today - unless they'd like to give it back.

Cops taking the flak

BEDFORDSHIRE'S Police has been receiving flak for being one of three police forces that, for over two hours, failed to attend to a motorcyclist who had skidded off his bike into a ditch on the boundary of the three counties, breaking an arm.

This breakdown of cross-border protocols as the incident was passed around three police forces and two ambulance trusts is inexcusable and the policing aspect has rightly been self-referred to the Independent Police Complaints Commission by the force for which I am responsible.

The appropriate lessons must be learned and we are indeed fortunate this was not a more serious incident.

But I am left wondering why Bedfordshire Police ended up doing the work of another emergency service by ferrying the injured man to hospital? By the time police attended some two hours after the initial call for an ambulance was made the police officers could still not be told when an ambulance might arrive.

It's not the first time the police have been called on to do the work of the ambulance service, and I'm sure it won't be the last.

The reality of emergency service provision in 2015 seems to be next to no ambulances available for non-life threatening injuries and barely enough police units to attend incidents that require it, let alone those that do not.

So rather than pointing the finger, we all need to start getting used to the idea that our already overstretched police can no longer be expected to be the emergency service of last resort.

More worryingly, this is before the further 25-40 per cent government police funding reductions expected in the Chancellor's November spending review.

ALL ABROAD: A team from Luton cycled the Love Luton Ride to Remember last weekend which saw them travel more than 200 miles by bike from the town first to Chatham then to Loos in France

Group hopes to beat £10k target with continental ride for our armed forces

CYCLISTS from Luton have remembered our country's fallen heroes by riding from the town to France last weekend.

The second Love Luton Ride To Remember went off without a hitch with the team successfully arriving in Loos on Sunday.

Linsey Frostick, chairwoman of Love Luton, said: "We all made it there on time with no real issues and paid respects to the fallen along the way.

"The weather was glorious for late September, despite having more punctures than last year.

"Last year we raised around £13,000 and the way things are looking I'm confident we'll beat what we set this time last year."

Last Friday the team left Luton for Chatham, Kent, where they spent their first night before heading for Dunkirk the next day.

On Sunday, some 200 miles later, the group finally arrived at the site of The Battle of Loos, where some 59,000 British soldiers lost their lives.

Linsey added: "I think we're going to take a few weeks out from thinking about bikes before we get planning next year's ride!"

Next year the trip will be made to mark the 100th anniversary of the Battle of the Somme, one of the bloodiest battles in human history.

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerve often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 4,026 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg."

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Vigilante family spared from jail

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

THREE members of a family turned into a vigilante group after a man in their street exposed himself on his front doorstep.

Shelina Sopa, 41, her son Nadeem Kadir, and her younger brother, Ahmed Jakaria, both 18 at the time, forced their way into the man's Luton home forcing him to escape through a bedroom window.

Inside the house the man's wide screen TV was damaged and so too was his Sky Box, costing a total of £715.

In his kitchen Sopa, who had armed herself with a knife, scattered coffee all over the floor and a microwave was also damaged.

On Monday, the three, who live in Ivy Road, Luton, pleaded guilty to burglary with intent to cause criminal damage on August 6, 2013.

The judge added that Sopa hadn't reported any previous incident to the police.

Sopa was given an 18 month jail term, which was suspended for two years, and ordered to carry out 180 hours of unpaid work as part of a supervision order.

The two younger defendants were each sentenced to 12 months in a young offenders' institute which, in their cases, was suspended for two years, and ordered to do 120 hours of unpaid work.

Sopa was told she must pay the man £250 and her son and her younger brother pay him £225 each and were handed a restraining order for the next two years which prevents them from entering the man's property.

Right up your street

Town's royally good ties with empire nation

THIS week Howard Chandler looks at streets with connections to royalty and India in 1911.

Seven streets laid out off Dunstable Road first appear on a map in 1915. Churchill, Beresford, Medina, Durbar, Highfield, Chatsworth and Shaftesbury form a block that continued Luton's westward expansion.

The names appear random but can be connected by the third Delhi Durbar, an event attended by thousands of the elite of Britain and India to show the power and wealth of the Empire.

The royal yacht, RMS Medina, was only used for one 'royal' voyage, to transport King George V and Queen Mary to India for the Imperial Delhi Durbar in 1911.

The Duchess of Devonshire was on board, leading us to Chatsworth House in Derbyshire and the Earl and Countess of Shaftesbury also travelled on the ship. Winston Churchill was First Lord of the Admiralty from 1911 to 1915 and Baron Beresford (1846-1919) was an Admiral and politician.

Time running out to nominate Best

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

WITH just a few more weeks to go until the big Luton's Best Awards ceremony, we've been looking at some of the people and businesses who scooped top prizes at last year's event.

The awards, organised by Love Luton, are a way to recognise unsung heroes in the town who selflessly go above and beyond expectations.

Community Company of the Year (sponsored by The Mail): Penrose Synergy

This company has supported nearly 3,000 clients since it first opened its doors back in July 2012. It delivers a range of services to the disadvantaged of Luton. The firm helps everyone from homeless people, to ex-offenders and substance abusers. All clients have spoken highly of the service provided and in a lot of cases have said it exceeded their expectations.

Community Businessperson (sponsored by Keepmoat): Phyl Rainey

Phyl is described as a true inspiration. Everything she does is for Signposts and giving back to the community. She is absolutely adored by so many especially those at Signposts. She works long hours for the greater good of Luton which includes volunteering at many community events throughout the year. Without Phyl many events simply couldn't happen.

Community Project of the Year (sponsored by London Luton Airport): Open Arts Project
The Open Arts project has brought many

WINNER: Community Businessperson Phyl Rainey
local people together who have grown in confidence but also contributed to what has been described as one of the most successful community projects to date. It involved using recycled and environmentally friendly products to create pieces of art. All the art was recently displayed in Wardown Park as one of the many exhibitions showcasing the local community's work. This was attended by hundreds of people.

■ To make your nominations, visit: loveluton.org.uk/enter-awards. Nominations close on Monday, October 26.

InterviewLuton

GROWING up as an only child meant Luton Culture employee Viji Desikan was the darling of her family.

The 31-year-old community centre assistant was born in Tirupathi, India, but grew up in Chennai with her mother, father and a host of relatives who constantly fussed over her.

Wherever she went, there was always someone nearby making sure nothing happened to her and she enjoyed close relationships with aunts and uncles.

Viji says: "Most of the time I was with my family and I never went out much with friends. Until I was seven or eight I was the only child in the family, because my uncles were bachelors, so they really took care of me and wouldn't allow me anywhere outside."

"If I went to the beach, park or zoo someone had to be with me, even if it was just to cross the road."

As a young girl, Viji says she never considered travelling abroad, so she focused on completing her studies. After high school she did a bachelors degree and then a masters in biochemistry in 2006.

She then became a technical editor and part of the training involved a trip to the UK in 2007.

"I came to London for the training and that was my first time travelling abroad," she says. "I came here for a week and when I arrived I really loved the place because it was totally different. Chennai is a hot city and I came in November so it was cold and a different experience for me."

"It was my first flight outside the country and I was without my parents and my family. I came with my colleagues. I really loved it."

The trip to London created an itch Viji resolved to scratch when the opportunity presented itself again. Fortunately, it did a few years later when she married her fiancé Mithun in 2009. He had been working as a research analyst before they met and soon after they married he came to the UK to do a masters degree in Bradford in 2010. Shortly afterwards Viji joined him and the couple moved to Luton after Mithun found work.

She says: "We thought, 'Again, it's a new thing for us', but we could manage in Bradford so I thought we could do it in Luton. When we came here he was working a lot."

"When he was a student we had some time to spend together but when he started working, other than the weekends, I hardly saw him. I thought, 'I can do housework for some time, but after that I am really bored, I don't have any friends or anyone to move around with or talk to. I decided I had to come out to do something for myself and also for society."

Viji says her main problem was a lack of confidence but that all changed when she started volunteering. She developed friendships and was 'roaming around' the town helping Luton Council deliver its services.

The change in her character was so remarkable that when she went to India earlier this year her family commented on how different she seemed.

"I'm more confident now than I was before, so even they could see that in the way I talk to people and interact with them, they could see that I had improved a lot."

"I wouldn't talk much before. People would have to come and talk to me and I'd just respond with a 'yes' or 'no.' But now they can see that I'm interacting more with people. They really like it, they like the change in me."

Viji says she feels she has blossomed in Luton and is excited about her future.

She adds: "This is the place where I found I could do whatever I could to improve myself, my skills, experience and confidence level."

"I've gained more knowledge about different cultures and I've met many people. I gain more knowledge from them and they tell me about their culture, what they celebrate and their different occasions, so I would say that this is one of my favourite places."

Town's MPs backing new Labour leader

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

JEREMY Corbyn's speech at the Labour Party conference on Tuesday has been endorsed by both Luton's MPs.

The new Labour leader gave a speech in front of delegates at the party's annual conference in Brighton, which was also well received by the party and the public at large.

One person who was quick to sing the praises of the new leader's speech was his long time ally and friend, Kelvin Hopkins, MP for Luton North, who felt it was a welcome return to the party's roots.

Mr Hopkins said: "I was there from beginning to end and thought it was absolutely wonderful."

"Among the majority of delegates, this was what they wanted to hear."

Mr Hopkins, who was the first person to nominate Jeremy for leadership of the party, maintains he can lead Labour to victory in the next election, saying: "I think he's definitely up to the job."

OPTIMISM: Both Kelvin Hopkins and Gavin Shuker (l-r) are looking forward to what a Corbyn led Labour Party could mean for the UK

"We've got difficult economic times ahead and we need people of the left in charge to encourage growth and move away from Tory austerity."

Despite tendering his resignation from the Shadow Cabinet upon Mr Corbyn's election, Gavin Shuker, MP for Luton South, was also impressed by the new leader, overcoming his reservations.

Mr Shuker said: "I thought Jeremy covered some very important issues, like the lack of affordable housing – a problem that we are sadly familiar with in Luton.

"Our leader also talked about business and how Labour would support the thousands of self-employed workers in the country and touched on the disgraceful consequences of the new individual voter registration system that has taken millions of people off the voting system."

"All in all it was a very optimistic speech, setting out Jeremy's plan to change the way we do politics in Britain."

Man sentenced for food safety hazards

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lismedia.co.uk

THE owner of a takeaway was prosecuted on Wednesday for health and safety and waste related offences.

When council food and safety officers visited Royal Peri Peri, 140a Leagrave Road, last December, they discovered poor standards of cleanliness and hygiene including unsafe electrics and evidence of pest activity.

Officers told the owner to clean up the kitchen and improve food hygiene practices, and served health and safety and food hygiene improvement notices.

When officers visited the premises again, they found standards had not improved and the hygiene and health and safety improvement notices had not been fully complied with.

Officers then revisited Royal Peri Peri several times but each time they found little improvement, despite repeated advice to the owner on what needed to be done to improve standards.

Royal Peri Peri's owner Mr Ali Khan pleaded guilty at Luton Magistrates Court on

HEALTH RISK: One of the scenes Luton Borough Council inspectors found when they did a check on the standards at Royal Peri Peri 25 August to two health and safety offences, 14 food hygiene offences and a section 34 Environmental Protection Act offence for waste related matters.

Mr Ali Khan's brother, Mr Atif Khan, pleaded guilty to obstructing an officer in the course of their duty and a Section 6 (1) Bail Act Offence.

While the council took legal proceedings against both Mr Ali Khan and Mr

Atif Khan, Mr Atif Khan maintained that his involvement as a joint food business owner was a case of mistaken identity.

The court sentenced Mr Ali Khan to an 18 week prison sentence, suspended for 18 months.

Mr Ali Khan is also prohibited from managing a food business for four years, and was ordered to pay council costs of £2,825 and a £100 court surcharge.

Bloom or bust as comedy acts ramp up chortle count

COMEDY

LIVE AT THE GROVE - COMEDY NIGHT

The Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Thursday, 8pm

A NIGHT of comedy is coming to The Grove this week.

The evening features a diverse range of acts, ranging from more traditional stand up routines to prop-heavy and music based acts.

Live At The Grove has returned following its sell-out date back in March and is bringing some stalwarts of the British comedy circuit, including some who've been featured on BBC panel show Mock The Week. Topping the bill is veteran Adam Bloom.

Now 44, he has been on the comedy scene for over 20 years and is still going from strength to strength.

While he is not the most instantly accessible comedian around at the moment given the subject matter of his comedy, the strength of the gags and his inventive style see him pull through.

A favourite of Ricky Gervais, he's appeared on a number of TV shows, including Mock The Week, Russell Howard's Good News, Never Mind The Buzzcocks and Live At The Comedy Store.

Another star name taking to the stage is Carl Donnelly.

He has been a regular on the London comedy circuit for many years and has made a number of appearances on BBC TV and radio, along with many sold out stints at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

His style is less a rigorously-planned script, more as if telling a friend stories down the pub.

He's also won a number of awards since his career started in 2004, including the Chortle Award for Best Newcomer and the Leicester Mercury Comedian of the Year award back in 2007.

Next on the bill is the Raymond & Mr Timpkins Revue.

It is freakish entertainment, incorporating inimitable acoustic guitar and stylophone driven rock anthems, coupled with a plethora of prop-assisted material.

Wildly brandishing the worlds' second largest briefcase containing a battery of ridiculous props, we also have George Egg.

He bounds onto the stage to perform one of the most interesting and innovative comedy performances that you are ever likely to see.

Opening the night's entertainment will be Dan Evans.

For over a decade Dan has delighted audiences throughout the UK and Ireland.

He's also had his grammar corrected by Dutch and German crowds; performed in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Singapore and Thailand, and is one of just two UK comics to play Hanoi, Vietnam.

He has also done a pilot for Channel 4 with Milton Jones, called House of Rooms.

Tickets are £15 and are available from the box office, by calling 01582 602080 or online at grovetheatre.co.uk and a £1.95 transaction fee will be added to all online and telephone orders.

Admission to the event is strictly 16 plus.

Yesterday once more for sounds of the Carpenters

MUSIC

THE CARPENTERS STORY

The Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Friday, October 23, 7.30pm

WIDELY regarded as the first tribute show when it debuted in 1989, this production takes you through the varied careers of siblings Karen and Richard Carpenter.

Phil Aldridge's lavish arrangements, stunning vocal harmonies and Claire Furley's uncanny representation of Karen Carpenter combine to bring back memories of pop's most melodic duo in a career which spanned three decades.

Originally a drummer, but thrust somewhat unwillingly into the limelight as the band's principle singer and frontwoman, Karen Carpenter has one of the most distinctive voices in pop music, with brother Richard taking control of the instrumentation for most of their classic hits.

Richard has also shown his appreciation of the show, having said in an interview: "It was well played, very accurate - I'm flattered!"

The band's career ended abruptly in 1983 when Karen died due to complications after a long battle with the then little-understood condition anorexia, but a number of posthumous releases kept their legacy alive.

However, in a successful 14 years the band left an impact on pop music which won't be forgotten, producing some of the most iconic songs of the 1970s.

While not a critical success, the group were loved by the recording industry and the public, having a string of number one hits and winning many awards while at the height of their fame.

The show features all the much loved songs, including Close To You, We've Only Just Begun, I Won't Last a Day Without You, Goodbye to Love, Top of the World, Please Mr Postman and Solitaire.

Tickets are £23 and are available from the box office, by calling 01582 602080 or online at grovetheatre.co.uk

Back to Black as up-and-coming band gig at home

MUSIC

EXIT BLACK

The Hat Factory, Luton
Friday, October 23, 7.30pm

ONE of the region's up-and-coming bands are planning a hometown show for the launch of their second EP later this month.

Strongly influenced by heavyweights like Muse and Royal Blood, Exit Black are tipped for big things despite only having been going for a year and a half.

They've already been featured in Kerrang! magazine, who named their title track from their debut EP 'The Sound' as one of their songs of the week.

Drummer Jamie Byrne said: "We've been working on this EP for a long time and we're really excited and nervous for the Hat Factory show."

"It's taken about five months, including nine days of recording, to get this done but we have no thought of slowing down at all."

"We've also put a lot of planning into our stage show and pyrotechnics."

Jamie, singer Joe Bignell and guitarist Joe Devine are all originally from Luton, with bassist Henry Green from London, by way of Kent.

Their next plan is promotion of their new EP and to play as many shows as the can.

Jamie added: "What we want is for this to be a step to the next level."

"We're quite well known locally but we want that to change to being known nationally"

Tickets for the event are £6 and available from the Luton Culture box office, either in person or by calling 01582 878100 or visiting lutonculture.com.

Guitarists play a double bill

MUSIC

WORLD OF GUITAR

Luton Library Theatre
Tomorrow, 7.30pm

TWO talented guitarists will take to the Library Theatre's stage tomorrow, showcasing very different musical styles they have picked up on their travels.

Kicking off the evening is London-based classical guitarist Adam Brown, who has recently returned from a series of performances in South America.

He's also played across Europe and the USA at a number of famous music venues and festivals.

He will be performing a number of tracks inspired by his time in South America.

His compositions will display the melodicism and rhythmic interplay so common in Latin and South American music, with a personal twist, from his 2010 album Gladios.

The next performer on the night is someone who's equally well-travelled, albeit to a very different place.

Folk rock singer-songwriter Jake Wilson will be performing songs from his 2012 album All's Well, which was released to mark 100 years since Captain Robert Falcon Scott and his team reached the South Pole.

In 2013, he made a trip to Cape Evans in Antarctica, performing his songs in the hut where Captain Scott and his team lived and worked before heading out to reach the South Pole.

The five song set will consist of songs taken from All's Well.

This event is just the second in the long-running Luton Music series, with shows running weekly until March, except for a break in December and January.

Tickets are £15 for adults, £8 for concessions and students in full time education get in for free.

Concessionary tickets are open to students, the unemployed and disabled people.

Tickets are available by calling the box office on 01582 878100 or by visiting the website, lutonculture.com.

PRESS RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 2015

SELL NOW AND MOVE BY CHRISTMAS, SAYS CONNELLS

Local estate agency Connells in Luton is urging homeowners to start marketing their homes now if they want to be moved by Christmas. According to the branch, September is an ideal time to sell your home. With children back at school and the summer holidays over, buyers are returning to the market and looking to purchase before the end of the year.

"If you are looking to move, September is a great time to put your property on the market," says Lee Clark, Branch partner for Connells. "It is traditionally one of the busiest times of the year for us as there is renewed interest in moving after the summer break."

The branch has already seen an uplift in activity since the start of the month, with more would-be buyers registering an interest in buying this year. Indeed, demand is such that the branch needs more properties in order to meet current buyer interest.

Lee continues, "Potential buyers are turning their attention back to the market at this time of the year and in the run up to Christmas. We would urge those interested in moving to make the most of the heightened autumn opportunities and a buoyant local housing market."

If you are interested in moving before the end of the year, or would like to book a free market appraisal with Connells, please contact the branch on 01582 450999 or email: Luto@connells.co.uk

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(A) THE A5 TRUNK ROAD (FLAMSTEAD, HERTFORDSHIRE TO LITTLE BRICKHILL, MILTON KEYNES) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 201

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT Highways England Company Limited (a) intends to make an Order on the A5 Trunk Road in Milton Keynes and Hertfordshire to enable carriageway resurfacing, lighting, cycle lane and toucan pedestrian crossing installation and associated works to be carried out in safety.

The works are expected to take place overnight for approximately 3 months (8pm – 6am) starting on, or after, Monday 26 October 2015.

The effect of the Order would be to close, alternately, the A5 northbound or southbound carriageway –

• between the A4012 at Hockliffe and the A4146 roundabout at Little Brickhill – diverting northbound traffic via the A505 and A4146 to rejoin the A5 at Little Brickhill and vice versa southbound,

• between the A505 roundabout and the Watery Lane roundabout at Flamstead – diverting southbound traffic via the A505, A4146, A414, A4147 and A5183 to rejoin the A5 at Flamstead, and

• any of the slip roads leading to or from the A422 Monks Way/ Abbey Hill Roundabout, Milton Keynes – diverting traffic on or off at the nearest open slip road and return to the original junction via the opposite carriageway to continue their journey.

Lay-bys adjacent to the length of A5 described above would be closed for the duration of the works. Access to properties fronting the A5 would be maintained at all times during the works.

The Order would come into force on 19 October 2015 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The closures (which would not apply to works, winter maintenance or emergency service vehicles) and diversion routes would be clearly indicated by traffic signs throughout the works.

Major upgrades unveiled for entire Kia Cee'd family

Kia has unveiled a major package of advancements to the entire European-designed, European-engineered and European-made cee'd family.

The revisions, which affect the five-door cee'd, three-door pro_ cee'd, spacious cee'd Sportswagon and sporty cee'd GT and pro_ cee'd GT, introduce new powertrains bringing major improvements in fuel consumption and emissions, modified chassis settings and styling and trim changes. There are also significant additions to electronic driver assistance features and connected car services.

First deliveries of the new cee'd family will be arriving in UK dealerships this month priced from £14,905 (cee'd), £15,250 (pro_ cee'd) and £16,750 (Sportswagon). The pro_ cee'd GT is priced at £23,105 and the cee'd GT at £23,605.

The cee'd family becomes the first range of models to be available with Kia's advanced new 1.0-litre ecoTurbo petrol engine as well as a new 1.6-litre CRDi diesel and seven-speed double-clutch (7-DCT) automatic gearbox.

Both 998cc engines have been engineered to require 10 to 15 per cent less fuel than the 1.4-litre multi-point injection or 1.6-litre GDI units in other versions of the cee'd family, with similar reductions in emissions. Depending on model, fuel economy is up to 57.6mpg, with CO2 emissions as low as 113g/km.

All three cee'd body styles are also available with a new 1.6-litre CRDi turbodiesel engine. This has increased power – up from 126 to 134bhp – with greater torque of 280Nm in manual versions and 300Nm with the new 7-DCT gearbox.

For buyers who want the sporty styling and trim of the GT models, but with lower fuel, insurance and taxation costs, there is a new GT-Line trim package which also debuted at Geneva earlier this year. GT-Line is available with all three body styles powered by the higher-powered 1.0-litre T-GDI petrol engine and with the new 1.6-litre CRDi diesel.

The 2016 cee'd family introduces a range of additional driver assistance and connectivity features. Depending on model, the cee'd is now available with a Speed Limit Information Function to reduce the risk of drivers falling foul of the law.

Every car in the cee'd family comes with the best warranty in the business – seven years or 100,000 miles, including labour, subject to terms and conditions. The warranty is fully transferable to the next owner if the car is sold before the time or mileage limit expires. The cee'd range is made at Kia's European factory at the Žilina plant in Slovakia.

COVERCAR

Golf GTE

Take a look inside...

The Volkswagen Golf GTE promises some faintly absurd-looking efficiency measures, emitting 39g/km of CO<sub>2</sub> and managing 166mpg on the NEDC fuel economy tests. Of course, in the real world, this plug-in hybrid probably won't make anywhere near those numbers, but with 204PS on tap, it's got the muscle to back up the sporty styling. Keep your eye on this one.

The GTE is powered by a combination of a 150PS 1.4-litre TSI petrol engine and a 102PS electric motor. Unfortunately, that doesn't mean you get 252PS. When used together, they nevertheless deliver a useful 204PS - and the torque figure of 350NM can't be sniffed at. When both power units are running in parallel, the GTE will accelerate to 62mph in a crisp 7.6 seconds and on to a top speed of 138mph. It can even hit 81mph using electric power alone.

Naturally, the GTE's battery packs put it at a weight disadvantage compared to a GTI. The extra 120kg of lithium-ion batteries and the 80kg of electric motor lift weight to 1,520kg but the additional bulk is mounted very low in the vehicle which means that the GTE will feel planted and well-resolved in a corner.

A big part of the GTE's appeal is that it doesn't look that different to a GTI. Visually, the Golf GTE combines elements of the look of the e-Golf and the GTI. The front bumper features C-shaped LED daytime running lights, like those on the e-Golf, as well as aerodynamic horizontal fins, like those on the GTI.

Inside, as on the outside, the Golf GTE features blue highlights where the GTI has red. You still get the flat-bottomed steering wheel with its circular hub and deep dish with audio, telephone and cruise control buttons mounted on two of its three spokes. There's also a set of drilled pedals and a big alloy foot rest. The vehicle speedometer and tachometer are familiar and the latter is supplemented by a power meter in the central display, which shows the status of the battery, whether or not power is being used and the intensity of any regeneration.

The GTE offers the tantalising prospect of a Golf Mk 7 that's quick and fun to drive with the running costs you'd normally associate with a stunted citycar. If ever you needed evidence of technology as an enabling factor in vehicle development, you couldn't do a lot better than this.

- £33,755-£35,520
- Emissions: 39g/km
- 0-62mph 7.6s
- Top speed 135mph
- 188 mpg (combined)

Introducing The New BMW X1

BMW's compact Sports Activity Vehicle, the X1, has been a huge success since its launch in 2009. More than 730,000 were sold globally of that first generation with nearly 40,000 new owners of X1 in the UK over the same period. Now an all-new BMW X1 has been unveiled and features dynamic BMW X styling, a sporting character blended with outstanding efficiency, and an array of innovative equipment features in comfort, safety and infotainment. Featuring an all-new range of engines and gearboxes, not to mention the latest, ultra-efficient version of the xDrive all-wheel-drive system, the second generation of the BMW X1 exemplifies BMW's EfficientDynamics philosophy. At market launch, one petrol engine and three diesel options are offered.

Make Summer Last Longer

Hardy British drivers are famed for their love of cabriolets and whilst we might have said goodbye to the traditional 'summer months', customers choosing the chic PEUGEOT 108 TOP! supermini can have versatile and user-friendly open top motoring all year round. Made from the highest quality materials, the retractable fabric roof has been engineered to provide excellent acoustic qualities. To enjoy the fresh air, simply press a button on the centre console and

New Superb Hits Skoda Showrooms

Skoda is preparing itself for a busy end to 2015 with soaring fleet sales and the launch of the new Superb. The brand's fleet team is experiencing unprecedented demand for its award-winning range of models with corporate and SME (Small and Medium Enterprises) sales up 22 per cent compared to 2014. The arrival this month of the all-new Superb is certain to give these impressive figures an even bigger boost before the year is out. Skoda has developed the Superb to have strong appeal with fleet buyers, with running costs among the lowest in the sector. Factor in the Superb's spacious and incredibly practical cabin and generous equipment levels and the case for the Superb is exceptionally strong. Designed to meet the specific needs of the fleet market, an SE Business trim level adds a raft of additional equipment over the already well-equipped SE model. SMMT

Statement On Emissions Testing

The UK automotive industry understands the concerns consumers may have following the actions of one manufacturer in regard to emissions testing and the subsequent decision to recall a large number of its cars. This is, however, an issue affecting just one company and there is no evidence to suggest that any other company is involved, let alone that this is an industry-wide issue. "Consumers should be reassured that cars sold in the UK must comply with strict European laws. All cars must complete a standard emissions test, which, unlike in the US, is independently witnessed by a government-appointed independent agency. On the separate on-going debate about real world testing, industry accepts that the current test method for cars is out of date and is seeking agreement from the European Commission for a new emissions test that embraces new testing technologies and which is more representative of on-road conditions."

Wraith — History of Rugby

When the established rules become a constraint to creativity, it takes individuals of vision to carry the game forward. It was this spirit of individuality that has inspired the creation of two Great British institutions – Rolls-Royce Motor Cars and the game of rugby. Celebrating the illustrious history of the latter, Rolls-Royce Motor Cars is delighted to introduce the Rolls-Royce 'Wraith – History of Rugby', a unique creation from the company's Bespoke Design Studio in Goodwood, England. Usually tasked with reflecting the individual taste and lifestyle of a bold new generation of customer, Rolls-Royce's Bespoke team has drawn inspiration from the rich history of the quintessentially English sport to create a unique car. The Rolls-Royce 'Wraith – History of Rugby' celebrates England's fundamental attachment to the great game.

Luton show us why Still never panicked

NOT long ago, there were more than a few worried Luton Town fans. After bringing in a dozen players in the summer, plenty of which have experience of playing at a higher level, expectations were high.

A poor end to last season, including a disastrous run of seven straight defeats, put paid to Luton's hopes of making it back-to-back promotions.

Manager John Still cited a lack of goals and to rectify this, the likes of Craig Mackail-Smith, Paddy McCourt and Cameron McGeehan were signed to bolster the attack.

Yet Luton only picked up five points from their first seven league games, with a worrying tendency to switch off right at the end of matches costing them dearly.

On four occasions, conceding goals in stoppage time was to cost them points but Still remained unflustered. He was happy with how his side were performing.

Now, he is getting results with Luton winning their last three and scoring freely while cutting out the individual errors that were hurting them so much. Much more like what the Kenilworth Road faithful were expecting.

Still never panicked because he has seen it all before; he has been in football long enough to know seasons are not decided in the first two months.

This has especially been

WINNING RUN: Luton have had three victories on the spin the case since he took charge at Luton in 2013. Anyone still wringing their hands over the Hatters' start only needs to look at the season they were promoted back to the Football League.

In contrast, Cambridge flew out of the traps with ex-Hatters boss Richard Money at the helm, but who finished top in May? Luton Town. By a whopping 19 points.

While no-one's saying they're going to now rip up League Two as they did the Conference in that heady season, it just shows how too quick to judge some can be.

● One of the best parts of this job is the variety of it. Last Wednesday I travelled to Sedgebrook Hall in Northants for a press conference with the Uruguay rugby team, who will be playing Fiji in Milton Keynes on Tuesday.

There I spoke to flanker

Alejandro Nieto and winger Francisco Bulanti, and it was one of the more enjoyable assignments I have undertaken recently. It always helps when you're speaking with isn't media-trained.

The experience left a couple of lasting impressions on me.

One was that I need to learn a second language (both players' English was very good), the other was how much the whole team is relishing the opportunity of putting themselves in front of a larger audience.

This Rugby World Cup has shown how much potential there is below the so-called 'tier one' nations and how much the sport can still grow. That dirty word 'legacy' is often spouted about what the benefits of the tournament can be in this country. Perhaps rugby should be looking further afield.

First League goal for Keshi

THE incredible rise of former Barton Rovers striker Keshi Anderson continued on Tuesday night as he scored his first-ever goal in the Football League for Doncaster Rovers.

Anderson moved to the Keepmoat Stadium last week on loan from Crystal Palace, who he joined from Rovers in February, and it hasn't taken him long to get settled in.

With his side trailing 1-0 at home to Swindon Town with 17 minutes left, the 20-year-old received the ball in the corner of the penalty area before cutting inside and bending a low shot into the bottom corner, in what was just his second start in League football.

It looked as if it was going to set Doncaster on their way to victory as an Andy Williams penalty put the hosts in front, only for Swindon to snatch a point in stoppage time.

Anderson will remain on loan at Doncaster for the rest of the month as he looks to show Palace boss Alan Pardew he is ready for the big time.

● Dunstable Town's reward for defeating Kingstonsian 2-0 in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup was a tough away draw against National League South side Maidstone United.

The Blues will face the former club of current Luton Town manager John Still at the Gallagher Stadium next Saturday.

Luton boxer met his match

BOXING

LUTON amateur boxer Jordan Reynolds finished runner-up in the Celtic Box Cup in Waterford, Ireland last weekend, where he lost in the final to Portuguese fighter Bruno Pereira.

Competing in the senior -75kg category, Reynolds was just unable to round off an impressive weekend's work after he decided to test himself on the international stage, despite the amateur boxing season in England finishing months ago.

The Luton Airport baggage handler has aspirations of competing in the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro and the two-time British champion went into the competition as one of the favourites.

After comfortably making the semi-finals on the opening day, riding a wave of confidence after such a good year, Reynolds overpowered his opponent from Sunderland, Jordan Rought, in the last four to ensure he went the distance in the Dungarvan Sports Centre.

Unfortunately he met his match last Sunday as Portuguese champion Pereira defeated him via knockout, but Reynolds had to that point looked the more impressive boxer.

In a further sign of his strong work ethic, Reynolds continues on the road later this month as he heads to Denmark to face their national champion.

Jack's a happy super-sub

STAR SUB: Marriott struck twice after stepping off the bench at Hartlepool

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

Jack Marriott scored his second Luton brace in a week and said he won't complain about his 'super-sub' tag – for now.

The striker came off the bench for injured Craig Mackail-Smith in the 28th minute and then fired a four-minute second half double as the Hatters thumped Hartlepool 4-1.

Marriott is now Town's top goalscorer with six and they've all come in twos and on each occasion the Hatters have won.

The 406 travelling fans in Victoria Park recognised his terrific contribution and serenaded him with his very own song, chanting 'Swing low Jack Marriott...' to the tune of the England rugby anthem.

Asked about being called a 'super-sub', the 21-year-old said: "I'm not surprised. That's something you get when you want to come off the bench and make an impact. Super sub is not the worst [tag]. I'll take it. I'll just hopefully get a few more goals, a few more starts and push on."

Marriott has only made two starts for Luton, but they've come in cup competitions, so asked about leading the club's goalscoring charts despite that record, he said: "I can't really complain with that."

"It's not a bad stat but I'll hopefully get a couple more starts and score some more goals, but as long as I'm doing my bit for the team, scoring when I can and when given the chance then it's all good."

Town have now won four League Two games on the spin and sit just two points off the play-offs despite an opening month of the campaign where they failed to win.

"After a slow start we are really starting to get going now," said Marriott, who was also joined on the scoreboard by Jonathan Smith and Olly Lee.

The striker, however, was also quick to praise Luton keeper Mark Tyler after he made four stunning saves to keep out Pools hitman Rakish Bingham.

"There were a couple of times where I thought they were about to score, where their number nine was in," Marriott said, adding: "Numerous times he has saved us and he deserves all the plaudits he'll get."

Tyler was modest, saying: "I'm there to save them, Jack is there to score them. We're all a team and it's not just down to me."

Talking about Marriott, the goalie said: "That's why Jack has come here. The gaffer knew what he was about. He's got his opportunity because Craig has come off, but he's got his two goals. He always scores goals, he's like that in training. He's a similar player to Craig and if you put it in the box he'll be there to finish it."

Equally important to Town's victory was Tyler's triumph over in his individual battle with the Pools striker and he said: "It was a battle between me and Bingham and luckily I came out on top."

Luton's slow start to the campaign looks to be well and truly behind him and they soon have the chance to keep things going as they travel to Gillingham in the JPT on Tuesday.

Swing low sweet Marriott

as the Hatters take four

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

LEAGUE TWO
HARTLEPOOL UNITED 1
LUTON TOWN 4

On most occasions the loss of your star striker to an early injury would be a cause for concern. For Luton the answer is Jack Marriott.

The student is very rapidly becoming the master after he replaced marquee summer signing Craig Mackail-Smith in the first half and then blasted a four-minute second half brace – his third double of the season – to leave the Monkey Hangers of Hartlepool swinging.

Before that, the Hatters played some pretty stuff but rarely looked like taking this contest by the scruff of the neck against a side that had only won once in seven previous league games. That, though, is the benefit of possessing an arch poacher like Marriott.

After just two starts, the hitman is now Town's top goalscorer with six – and the 406 travelling fans serenaded him with his very own song, chanting 'Swing low Jack Marriott...' to the tune of the England rugby anthem.

But the 21-year-old's contribution was only made possible by a stunning display from goalkeeper Mark Tyler. Four times the veteran stopper denied Pools frontman Rakish Bingham. Three of them were stunning.

On any other day the Pools ace would have been the hero, so it is slight cause for concern that the former Mansfield man was gifted that many chances – but Tyler is no ordinary goalie and he proved his weight in gold yet again.

Success takes many forms and Luton are now starting to come up trumps in all the vital areas. They weren't as convincing as the score-line suggests, but it's hard to argue against four goals on the road – with Jonathan Smith and an Olly Lee stunner adding to that tally – and four wins on the spin.

Last term, Town netted just 17 away goals. They have now blasted 15 in six and are starting to build a very definite head of steam.

The hope is that there is still more to come from this team. There has to be if they are to truly justify their promotion credentials, but the difference from the first month of the campaign is remarkable.

Bingham's nightmare began as early as the third minute when he evaded the Town defence only to smash low and wide but, for the first 15 minutes, they looked sharper, more committed and more direct, with pace to burn on the flanks.

So it came as some surprise that, with their first penetrative attack on 17 minutes, Town took the lead when Luke Guttridge's cross was spilled by goalkeeper Adam Bartlett and Smith thumped in for his second in a week and fourth of the campaign.

Then came the blow of losing Mackail-Smith to injury in the 28th minute. What a relief it is to have Marriott as back-up.

Before the forward even entered the fray, Tyler produced his first stunning block to keep Bingham out, but it was no surprise when Pools restored parity just before the break, even if Luton looked to have seen out the perfect first half. Oates whipped in a devilish cross that Billy Paynter headed in off the turf and beyond the reach of Tyler.

Town regained the lead through some good, old fashioned agricultural football in the 53rd minute. Luke Wilkinson's headed clearance turned into an enticing through-ball for which Marriott needed no second invitation. He raced clear and slid past Bartlett.

There was more to come from the young Hatter but first Tyler pulled off another top drawer save to deny Bingham. Luton raced up the other end, Guttridge fizzed across the six-yard area and there was Marriott to stab in another, four minutes after his first.

Tyler stopped Bingham twice more before Lee showed the United man how it's done with a blockbuster half volley into the top corner from outside the box. It was his first for Luton but he'll do well to catch man of the moment Marriott. They all will at this rate.
